

CIHR CAFÉ SCIENTIFIQUE PRESENTS

Science on tap

Quench your interest

Why Can't I Find a Family Doctor in This City, Really?

The Problem & Promise of Primary Health Care

Tuesday January 19, 2009

Time: 6:30 – 8:30 pm

Location: Dora Keogh Irish Pub, 141 Danforth Ave, Toronto
(east of Broadview on the south side of Danforth)

RSVP: Anne-Marie Tynan at 416-864-6060 ext 2522, or tynanma@smh.toronto.on.ca

Moderator: Brian Goldman, MD, Host of CBC Radio 1's "White Coat, Black Art"

Join us on:

facebook

What are the best predictors that you'll find a family doctor this year? Is it a matter of chance, good networking, geography, or something else? Join us to discuss what the new primary health care reforms, including "family health teams", mean for those of us who have – or are still looking for – a family doctor in this city.

With: Richard Glazier, MD, MPH
Research Scientist, Centre for Research on Inner City Health, St. Michael's Hospital; Scientist, Institute for Clinical Evaluative Sciences

Jan Barnsley, PhD
Associate Professor, Department of Health Policy, Management & Evaluation, Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto; Adjunct Scientist, Institute for Clinical Evaluative Sciences

Presented by The Centre for Research on Inner City Health (CRICH), St. Michael's Hospital and the Institute for Clinical Evaluative Sciences (ICES). This event will follow the CIHR-funded Summit on Primary Health Care Reform Research, Toronto (<http://www.cihr-irsc.gc.ca>).

Space is limited.